In his despicable and mendacious letter, Indyk says its up to me. As I told Marty I'm willing to contribute the 500k to charity as long as a significant component is directed to a charity of my choice-- either my harvard chair or my family charitable fund at the combined Jewish charities. The entire 500k can't be to your chairities that you have pledged to and that satisfies your pledges. That would be the same as me returning the 500k to you, which I cannot do. I am being very reasonable and we are not that far apart. We can resolve this if you work through Marty and not Indyk. There is a noon deadline. After that I'm traveling to Florida to continue prep on my Monday depo. Please let me know before noon whether we can resolve this on the very reasonable terms I have proposed.
