Dr Daniel Kraft (USA) is a physician-scientist, inventor and innovator. He has over 20 years of experience in clinical practice, biomedical research and healthcare innovation. He is Faculty Chair for the Medicine and Exponential Medicine program at Singularity University, exploring the impact and potential of rapidly developing technologies as applied to health and medicine. Dr Kraft recently founded IntelliMedicine, focused on connected, data driven, and integrated personalized medicine and was named as one of the 40 Smartest People in Healthcare.

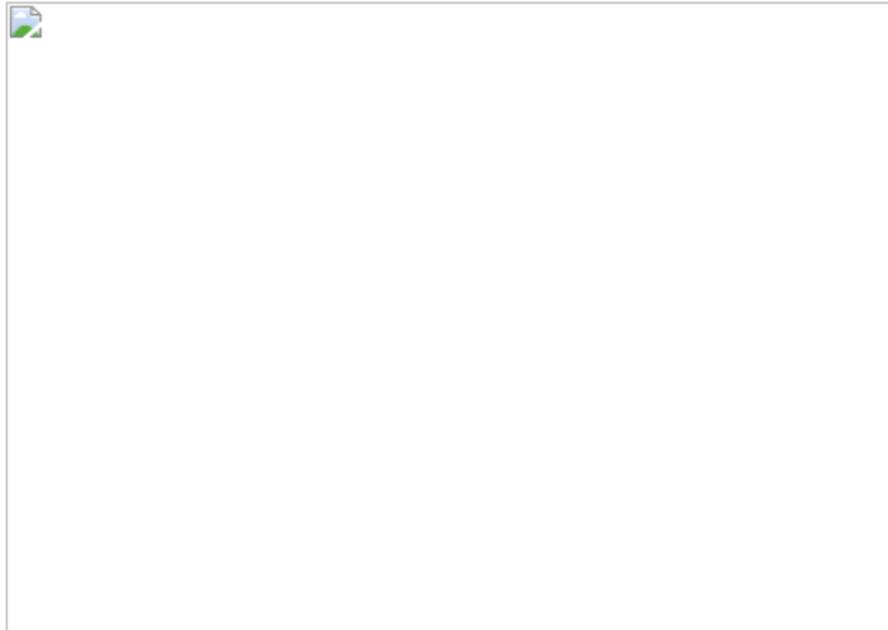

Michelle Simmons is recognised internationally as a pioneer in atomic electronics and quantum computing. She is currently a Scientia professor and Laureate Fellow at the University of New South Wales. She was recently awarded $46 million of funding in just one week to go ahead and build the world's first practical and commercialisable quantum computer.

Martin Ford (USA) is a leading expert on the robot revolution, artificial intelligence, job automation and the impact of accelerating technology on the economy and society.

He is the author of two books Rise of the Robots: Technology and the Threat of a Jobless Future (2015) and The Lights In the Tunnel: Automation, Accelerating Technology and the Economy of the Future (2009) – both dealing with the effects of automation and mass unemployment. He is the founder of a Silicon Valley-based software development firm.

Early bird tickets will open on April 18th on our website. Don't miss out on outstanding special discounts!
