[REDACTED] and his partner [REDACTED] had a car accident in SF (the other car ran into them), he is still flying back tonight (I asked him to change the flight but he didn't want to. Has a huge bruise on his forehead. Also bruises on his leg he said). I will go meet him at the airport tonight. Probably would be better for me to take care of him tmw - we have the training for emergency scheduled at 71st tomorrow, would it be ok for me not to go?
