I'll ask Josh ,,
I think it's a pilot schedule issue and Chevron does not want the aircraft sitting on the ramp outside in Westfield, after they learned Westfield cannot input the airplane early,.
Westfield does not hangar space until next weekend,.

Larry,

Chevron can't do it Monday. They will need to get the contract countersigned Monday before leaving Tuesday. Please look at your schedule and try to change it. We really need to stick with the movement on Tuesday and a test flight Tuesday or Wednesday. Thanks. Send me the work scope proposal as soon as you can too. Josh

We have a crew set to fly on Tuesday, March 28th and do the test flight upon arrival or the next morning before they fly home. I don't think there is any reason to delay the start of this a week and I don't think that it is a good idea to deliver the airplane on a Friday or Saturday and leave for the weekend. We need to have an induction meeting when we arrive to make sure everyone is on the same page and Gulfstream is set to start. Can you do it in the beginning of next week?

Larry, That really kills an entire week when we could be starting the inspections. It would be best to really stay with the schedule that Chevron is planning for....moving the plane on Tuesday and getting started.

I still need to know if you've contacted Gulfstream Westfield and if they are ready for us and we need to see your prebuy work scope in its final complete form. Thanks. Josh
