[REDACTED] and I have been fortunate enough to vist Paris on many occasions. I feel closely connected to this magnificent European capital . Being fluent in french and having french genes parading through my body leaves me no choice but to consider myself part of France..

When on my most recent visit to Paris, After gorging myself on baguetes I made my way to a few of the more elegant fashion shows. First Chanel's spring and summer ready-to-wear show and in and then the Valentino haute couture show. I was privleged to attend the [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]), where I met some of the most remarkable people from cities across the world. When I spend time in Paris I am able to feel its vitality not only see it . The city sings to me and I never tire of its artistic and historical richness . I have also had the pleaseure of [REDACTED] [REDACTED], which is where I initially developed my passion for art and culture. Im afraid i spent much of my free time indoors , visiting the vast panolply of museums. the opera and discovering Italy's wealth of cultural offerings very soon, realizing that I wanted to pursue my passion for [REDACTED]

Attending [REDACTED] , I believe would also represent a natural evolution of my education I have previously attended the [REDACTED] , earning a [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I am fluent in both [REDACTED] , but also recently i have polished my English skills . This after studying I in school and practising during frequent trips to the United States. It happens that [REDACTED] . I have been exposed to and greatly appreciate the American cultureas a result of of my internships with [REDACTED] and the [REDACTED] I truly loved my time in New York My family origin and the education I received seems to lead me to no other place than to [REDACTED].

Studying art history at [REDACTED] would be a great opportunity to further discover the French culture. I believe that the education I will acquire by completing an [REDACTED] undergraduate program, coupled with additional internship experience, will equip me with all necessary skills to achieve my future career goal to work in the art or fashion industry. I also will learn to give pleasure to men so i am able to support my studies.
