Spoke to [REDACTED] - about google, press, etc.. She said she understands now, she was too shy to ask and didn't want to offend us. She will write to you on Skype! I told her that you were giving up on her but I was trying to convince you to give her a chance (I know how hard it is to find a job for a young inexperienced girl in moscow). She also said she had had a very bad experience ([REDACTED]) in moscow
