Thanks for afternoon chat. And the privilege of watching you get your hair cut.

I want to get started at ██████. You know that.
It would be really fun, marry a lot of things I'm interested in. And it's creative. I know I am no good at purely administrative work. I like stories. And an environment where i can insert my opinions.
But I love the idea of taking classes until it starts up. Making my own curriculum. Creative writing at Columbia, drawing at Art Students' League, voice with some Juilliard defector, maybe some A low rent geisha program.
BUT: I am chomping at the bit to be 'gainfully employed' so I would be absolutely interested in doing the Jewish Lives project if I can really be put to use there.
Otherwise I'll feel like a lady who lunches. SO depressing.

The address where I'm heading on Friday after the conference is:

████████████████████████████████

See you Friday morning.

I want to fill you in on some things.. including possibly moving the money event to april.. we are going to have a 5th anniversary gala weekend, with fascinating panels organized by steve pinker, craig venter etc..

on consciousness, synthetic biology, etc, and it may be fun to have the money event then..

are you around and free to speak>

also, we will be in paris July 13-18th.. any chance you will be there?
