My gut is to let it ride for a few more days. It seems so transparently tabloid that I find hard to believe it will have legs. On the other hand, given Cosby example, who knows. Again, if a response is needed, I'd go with stressing that these are unidentified complainants and a dubious lawyer making these allegations, against not only you, but any bold-face name they could plausibly associate with you. I.e. extortion aided by a gullible press.

On my part, this press wave is an opportunity for me to deal with the whole business in a larger context, casting you as a victim of media, zeitgeist, and ambulance-chasing lawyers. I actually think this current stuff is an opportunity to cast doubt on the conviction. If I can finish this in Feb, should be out by mid-to-late March.
