Rich,
Hope you found the information useful regarding Soffritti cello I forwarded you yesterday.
I think that it is time to finish this project, as several weeks ago Jeffrey had said he wanted to move forward with this particular instrument and I relayed information to sellers, and now as I explained to you yesterday, owner is getting testy over elapsed time. As I said yesterday, I am a professional concert cellist acting on friendship at Jeffries request. In my opinion this instrument is a wonderful acquisition for the foundation and should be a source of pride for years to come . Please let me know what to relay to owner and when closure shall be. I personally have put in a exorbitant amount of time on this project and feel that we have exhausted every avenue and done more then due diligence .
Looking forward to getting this done for Jeffrey and foundation. Will appreciate your prompt reply!

Thank you
WDR
