Good evening rich

The quote covers the equipment (which will be new), the warranty, and QoS management (this will be a yearly fee).

I requested clarification from Omar and Allen about the installation process that should include the dragonwave link (I hope take over the dragonwave management can be negotiated) and the fiber.

price seems reasonable on quote is cisco 2921 a new unit or been around for a while?
what is warranty by buying thru choice?
when will it be available?
does quote include them installing equipment?
please obtain answers today so we can move forward ASAP

thank you
