things have changed now, she has a pending green card application. with a pending application, she cannot leave the country without receiving an advance parole, which will come with the employment authorization. i understand the vi is not international travel but there is still a risk.

with her marriage certificate and her application for change of status, her letter saying she did not overstay , so she was never out of status, what is the risk of her traveling to the vi? I will try to get prior approval from the local supervisor.
