This Order seems to require that we produce documents to the Court for an in camera inspection, not to you, and it was also premised upon the other privileges being asserted. In light of the withdrawal of the other privileges, it would seem to be moot, as you agreed at the hearing. However, we can file a Motion for Clarification with the Court.

These are the two orders related to the production of financial discovery. To my knowledge, Epstein never produced the documents nor a detailed privilege log to the court. At the last hearing, Crow apparently remembered this fact as he inquired as to whether there were any outstanding issues and that he remembered that he was supposed to get a privilege log. This is what he was thinking about.
