Your kidness made me cry... Thank you so much my dear Jeffrey...
I am to excited to think now.. Maybe i was too inaccurate with my request?
Should I be more precise regarding this matter?

After the sunrise this morning and the moon was still in the front of our lonely bedroom window i felt I want to write you! Once again i had a dream where your appearance was the most bright and recongnizable for me. How are you dear Jeffrey? How is your Autumn?

Now when [REDACTED] :) I became much more concerned about our being- work, finances, success ,future. I need your word Jeffrey! And i am sorry to take your time with a little story i am going to write.

Life is full of challanges , we lost our main financial welfare when the govermant decided to destroy Theater Arena which was leaded by my husband and to build an apartments...at the moment we are trying to survive by the events, concerts which Valdas organises. but the market is too busy in this village which calls Lithuania.It's filled by misery, if you will escuse me for my language ,commercial shit! Sad to say but this is a mentality of this country! Dark, sad and full of corruption. The good example is when Valdas( my husband) brought Complexions Ballet from New York, ( which is A level artist) and went through all Baltic countries on tour( Latvia,Estonia, Lithuania). but in the end it was just a moral satisfaction not financial...My long introduction comes into the simple , full of hope question for you . Why You, because you are the most brilliant person I know, you have power , you have an amazing experience, you know the world! And your advice can make a big differences in people's life!

We would love to move away from Lithuania and start this business in Geneva, Switzerland. To bring different kind of artist to perfome there ( classical, pop, ballet, drama theater ,dance show, musicals..ect.) we're already made a deal for 2017 on April, we will bring Complexions Ballet to Theatre du Léman Geneva. But before we have to organise something else there. And the biggest challange for us now is how to get an artists and how to enter into this market of that country . Maybe you know an agency or agent from who we could buy an artists? if there is some any suitable connection for that kind of business you could share with us , we would be more then appreciate!!!

Thank you so much for your time reading it!
Sending you huge hug and kisses!
Lots of love
