Great. I am in paris 21-25 March , let me know when we meet !!
Where are you now?

So it's 100% for Berkeley Law ?

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

Jeffrey!! Happy to read from you. Thank you, personally, you mean?

You are so funny with your passion for assistants. Where are you now?

I introduced you girls I know in New York! My other girls are in Paris, Zurich, Monaco... I want you to meet [REDACTED] from Zurich, [REDACTED] dreams about going to USA but when i sent photos you said you dont want to meet her. I can introduce you by skype [REDACTED], my assistant, lol, she is super hot, blond, amazing lady, but again, she is in Monte Carlo!! It would be easier when I am in USA.

this is my girlfriend based in NY you should meet
[REDACTED]

Jeffrey, once you get in touch with Nicky Spielberg, (we were skiing with her on my birthday in St Moritz 3 months ago), she is in NY now, she will bring you 5 new girlfriends a day if you want this. Trust me. For New York - you can't hire better Madam than Nicky ;-)

Kiss!

I will do it personally, , I am disappointed that you have yet to produce assistants as part of our understanding. now that you are a lawyer i would have thought you recognized that an agreement had two sides, each with their own obligations.)):

Dear Jeffrey,

Hope you are doing well. Where are you nowadays? When will you be in Paris? I would love to see you and present you assistants^^.

Greetings from beautiful Monaco where I complete the rest of my mandatory training for the French Bar. Our law firm Wragge Lawrence Graham merged recently with Gowling (largest Canadian law firm) so we are now Gowling WLG.

I am very excited for my studies at Berkeley and look forward for the new challenge of passing American bar exam. I accepted the LLM Professional Track and will do 3 months courses in summer 2016 and 2017 if your organisation could sponsor the studies.

Information on Tuition:

Tuition fees are currently estimated at $26,846.50 for summer 2016, subject to change.

Fees are billed in late-April and are due by May 15th for each summer semester.

Below are the link to access website, codes and instructions for the deposit payment of 1000$ which will be reduced from the remaining Tuition fees:

1. Navigate to the Admitted Students Website at <http://www.law.berkeley.edu/summeradmit.htm>
2. Click the link to "login with your Alternate ID"
3. Enter your Alternate ID and Passphrase, listed here separated by a space: flav [REDACTED]

Please let me know how it goes so I can be sure to study at Berkeley to pass the American Bar afterwards and plan accordingly. Jeffrey, I miss you and really hope to see you. Maybe on my way to San Francisco, I could stop in New York on 5-7 June to visit you? Nowadays, I study hard for CFA and take it on 4 June n Paris...non-stop challenges :-)

Thank you from the bottom of my heart to make the big dream to come true..since summer 2011 when it all started with you!

Warm regards,
[REDACTED]

Dear Maria,

Thank you for writing. As we're very busy this time of year, email is usually the best way to get ahold of us.

Although your response deadline lapsed a long time ago, we never formally withdrew your professional track application, so you could still accept admission now if you like. You can follow the steps listed in our email below to log in to our admitted students website, pay the deposit, and accept admission. After that, it takes us five to ten business days to get your information entered into the appropriate campus systems, and you can then access the NIF in order to request your I-20. First year students will also start selecting courses at the end of March.

Please let me know if you need any further assistance.

Regards,

Instructions for Accepting Admission to Berkeley Law

Berkeley Law now offers a flexible start date for the professional track. Each summer students must attend at least three consecutive quarters, commencing in either Q1 or Q2. Students may attend all four quarters at no additional cost. Please note that you must commit to a start date upon confirming enrollment and may not change it, as that will serve as your official I-20 program start date.

PROOF OF DEGREE – FOR RECENT GRADUATES ONLY

The University of California requires proof that you earned your prior degree(s) successfully. If you already submitted one set of final transcripts as part of your application, or if you submitted your transcripts to LSAC, you do not need to send another set of transcripts.

If you did not already submit a set of final transcripts showing degree conferral, your admission to graduate standing at Berkeley is provisional pending receipt of an original transcript from each undergraduate and graduate institution where you earned a degree. Final transcripts must indicate your degree and the date of award.

If your final transcripts will not be available by April 15, 2016 request your registrar to forward a Certificate of Completion or equivalent. The Certificate must be accompanied by a copy of your transcript that reflects all work to date. It is imperative that you provide a final transcript once it is available

Dear [REDACTED],

Congratulations on your admission to the 2016-17 professional track of the Berkeley Law LL.M. Your acceptance of Berkeley Law's offer will place you in a pool of distinguished legal professionals and scholars, and we look forward to having you join the ranks of our remarkable alumni.

Our professional track gives practicing and aspiring attorneys the opportunity to earn Certificates of Specialization in Business Law, IP Law or Public Law, and to learn from world-renowned professors. For example, in the summer of 2015 students took Privacy Law from leading expert Paul Schwartz, co-director of the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology.

Professional track students are given exclusive attention by our faculty in classes which are custom-tailored for international students. Outside the classroom, students have the opportunity to engage with their professors at academic and social events. And as a Berkeley Law graduate myself, I can tell you that your professors' doors will always remain open.

At Berkeley Law, students learn not only from the faculty, but also from their fellow classmates. Our professional track students come from over 50 countries and, like you, have impressive backgrounds. Berkeley Law's worldwide alumni network will be a powerful resource throughout your career.

Please see the directions below on how to access the Admitted Students Website and accept our offer of admission. Your deadline to respond to this offer is Thursday, November 5th by 5:00PM Pacific Daylight Time.

If you have any questions, please contact the International and Advanced Degree Programs Office at [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

Sincerely,
Amelia Miazad, Esq. (Berkeley Law '02)
Executive Director, International and Advanced Degree Programs

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ADMITTED STUDENTS

All of this information, plus scholarship applications, a personalized checklist and more, is available online at our Admitted Students Website. Please use the site as your one-stop resource to prepare for your arrival in Berkeley.
