Subject: Jop Opportunity

Dear Maria,

My name is [REDACTED] and am originally from Nicaragua. My multicultural background has been helping me throughout the years to adapt to any situation and communicate to larger audiences. I have a double major in marketing and management, and a minor in digital media marketing. My previous experiences helped me build characteristics that would be a great fit for the position. My attached resume further describes my capacity to excel in this position. You can also find my picture attached in this email. I am eager to arrange an interview to discuss how my interests and background can contribute to your position. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you and have a good day,
