Regarding the Appointment of John R. Bolton

Since his appointment as Assistant Administrator for program and policy coordination for USAID in 1981, COHA has frequently found itself at odds with John R.

Bolton and his radical rightist foreign policy stances while in office.

Now, upon hearing of his consideration for a position in the national security arena, COHA is once again genuinely apprehensive with the appointment of Bolton to a position in the new government. Below is a compilation of research articles from the COHA archives which articulate said concerns and highlight the fact that Bolton is entirely unfit for the job. We strongly encourage you to review these pieces as an integral part of your critical assessment of Bolton.

Thank you,
