That's so amazing! Last night before going to sleep was actually thinking of you...and was wondering how are things going on in your life? I'm sure your working hard and enjoying life even 'harder' :), since haven't had any news from you in a while.

I'm very good now, even though i had some 'heavy' past few weeks. I was hospitalised for a week for some kidney problems, and then my bag with all documents, cards and everything inside was stolen in a restaurant during dinner. Got over that now.

I'm really involved work wise. I have the best boss in the whole world, I'm so lucky for that. She is helping so much with everything, and even though extremely busy always, she gets the time to answer my questions. I'm getting so much experience and so much insight of the business more then in 4 years of Uni. I have to say I still have self-confidence problems, and sometimes I'm thinking 'Ohhhh, I'll never be able to be at the level people expect me to be', and that maybe is because maybe is not what I am good at and still didn't find my real vocation.

On the other hand, being alone in this forgotten by world village kind of kills all my perspectives as well. I'm alone all week long, have no places to go out and have a nice dinner and no friends who could join me. I spend most of my weekends in London, but no exciting events to attend with my bf, though I spent good time with friends.

Any advises?

And you?

kisses
