got your skype message.. was coincidentally just emailing you and have a half finished email at the office that I had to leave before I rushed out...

answers to your question

1. still trying to pin down chomsky on date in March
2. RD will be in NY.. he is coming to US for book tour in Nov so I expect he will be in NYC
3. Postdoc just got announced.. university put out press release.. been picked up by a bunch of sources, adverts went to Science, Nature, Physics today etc, and we are already getting inquiries..
4. I have some other ideas for you.
5. Just had meeting with head of ASU foundation.. He is willing to set up separate 510c3 for origins if we want independence, and also willing to sign and honor any agreement to allow funds to be moved out of ASU if I leave and donor wants them to go with me.. even endowment funds.. Therefore there are new possibilities and I would like to talk to you about what you might want in the best of all worlds..
