..i have a suggestion for the hallway area..i just remembered this, a few days ago when i did that light blue(the tape blue) sample on the wall in the dining room over the gold, ..when i went to change the blue water i had in my bucket, i notice that that light blue color works very well on the hallway. i think is the same blue we used in that small toilet room in the cillax room bathroom..the bathroom with the corals..
i attached here the hallway area
