Pursuant to our telephone conversation, attached are copies of the invoices previously forwarded. Our accounting department has notified us that these invoices are currently outstanding. If Mr. Epstein has any questions concerning the statements or if payment has been made on any of these invoices and not properly credited by us, please advise as to the check date, amount and check number so that we can trace it in our system for proper crediting. Thank you so much for your assistance in processing these statements.

Best regards,

Pam
