Jeffrey, there's a girl I'm really into - you met her that day at the beauty salon, older painter. I'm trying to get her attention but it's not easy, she has a (loser) boyfriend and is a bit spaced out in general. Is there anyone in the art world that you could help me introduce her to, either someone who can help advance her career (gallery owner, agent, etc.) or perhaps an artist she might admire and want to meet? Part of me feels like I'm barking up the wrong tree (she's Russian) but for some reason I really attracted to this girl. Maybe I could bring her over one day to show her your collection? I value your opinion and would want you to meet her anyway to get your take on things. I've had so many bad experiences with Russians.

Ok will touch base on Monday. She's asking if she can stay w me, which is a hard no (assuming she's still a party girl + smoker).
