jeffrey--

best asylum attorney i know is cheryl david. she is a little picky with the cases she takes but she is very good.

i called her to see her availability and she said she'll be more than happy to discuss with you.

i did not give her your or the client's names.
