I just spoke with Dave and explained that we were going to pay him 5,000 more so he would then have received 105,000 of 109,500 he believed he was entitled to.

Dave in typical Dave fashion asked if JEE would consider skipping the 5,000 and sending him to GIV school instead (22,900 cost)

He said he knows Nadia went to school and thinks you may be buying a GIV so he wants to be trained
Please advise 5000 or GIV school?
