The deal idea following today's meeting:
Create two classes of shares: Full voting A shares for me 49%, and non voting B shares for them. The B shares have the characteristics of debt only.
The company takes on a loan of $2.4m repayable in 7 - 10 years at 0% interest.
To level it out the interest rate of the $16m loan will be lowered so the $2.4m is recouped.
What do you think?
