Jeffrey, thank you, i asked her all this.

I sent about 5 letters to lawyers and HR people in australian law firms and I got two responses inviting me for the interview!! WOW, I am Russian with no australian degree, its pretty amazing they consider me :)

I wrote personally to some attorney from Turner Freeman I found particularly attractive, really good looking and young - i said i can also speak Norwegian because he is from norway and i said I am doing here at Clifford exactly what he does, commercial transactions :) so he invited me for interview!!

all these little steps will lead to something big I Hope !!
