I don't ignore you. I don't know what questions do you mean? I was thinking about how to get better. We spoke about charity trip before so thought that I can do it. Also I'm exercising typing and watch khan. I did dyslexic test and went to dermatologist. I'm sorry to hear that you see that I'm not trying. Also I found course of various massages for 5-7. Can I book it for that days?
Ps what type of questions should I ask then?

I was quite disappointed that none of your questions re what you should do with your time relates to how you can do a better job, start a more secure financial life. have a more direction to your goals. I have told you many many times that charity can wait until you are older and the most important charity is you you... going to madagascar before you are stable. have direction and are really good at helping me or other jobs. makes no sense (at least to me) as always and as unfortunately common , though i spend the time to give you my best advice, re skin, biz etiquette etc. you choose to ignore. it . I had suggested taking multipew toefl test. the entire four hours at a time. you disageder, adn the results are the results. doing it again without more preparation is silly , and you should make a distinction between spending time and spendign time wisely. you are great. I want the best for you. Im not sure how to get my message across. as I said it seems that i am not ding a very good job in explaining the risks and rewards.
