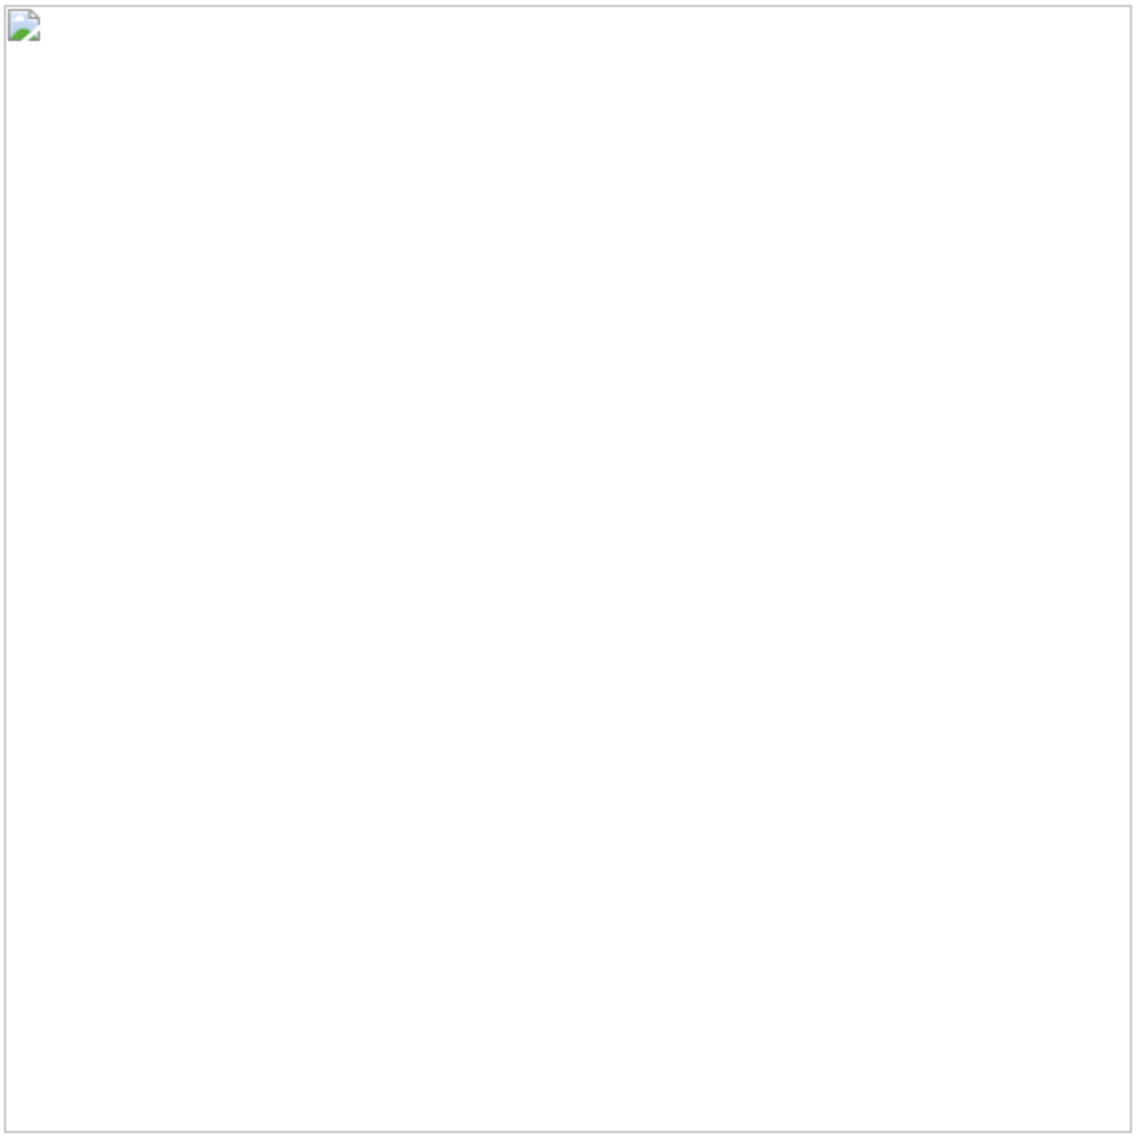
Dear G4G Community,

By now many of you have heard the sad news that our friend, Raymond Smullyan, passed away on Monday, February 6th, at the age of 97. Raymond was an important member of the G4G family and his death is a significant loss to our community. He will be deeply missed.

Raymond Smullyan Appears on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson:



In his honor, Gathering 4 Gardner would like to collect thoughts and memories of Raymond Smullyan to share with his family and on our website. If you would like to contribute, please send us your thoughts using the following form:

Share Your Thoughts

If you would like to share photos please email them to [redacted] and indicate if we may publish them on our website or only share them with the Smullyan family.

"Martin Gardner's writings certainly meant a great deal to me! They have inspired the creation of many of my own logic puzzles. I was also greatly influenced by some of his religious writings–particularly by The Flight of Peter Fromm." – Raymond Smullyan

Many wonderful tributes have been published since Smullyan's death, including:

- New York Times
- International Business Times
- The Guardian
- And our own G4G blog tribute, click below:
