Yesterday after 4 days of calls i finally connected with owner Bobby of Freehold NJ Paint Shop
Time frame has now changed that they will need car for 4-5 weeks as painting requires 20 working days
When paint is completed they like to let car sit for 1 week before they buff car (included as part of 4-5 weeks above)
Once car is received they will send us a panel of Lamborghini Yellow so we can approve color

After paint car will go back to dealer to have carpet replaced from tan to black (1 day job)
Please note the dealer is saying that black carpet is called Ebony but is actually grey
See photos below

Should i have JoJo bring car in on Monday June 30th which should have car return week of August 4th or wait until after leave from your next visit in mid July?

Please advise June 30th or Mid July and if Grey carpet is ok?
