

From: [REDACTED]

To: jeevacation@gmail.com

Subject: Hello

Date: Wed, 05 Sep 2012 14:06:37 +0000

Hi Jeffrey,

Hope this note finds you well! I just spent some time with Mort, and he said you were great, but I haven't spoken with you in so long thought I'd drop a note and say hello. Mort and I reconnected with what started as a dinner date, then a weekend, then a week on the yacht on the Amalfi Coast - 11 days later I got home. It was SO much fun!!!! and funny too!!!

Have a bunch of friends and cousins that are hitting the 15 - 20 age group. Wish you could start a school to "give them a clue" - these girls really need your training! I almost called you when my cousin was here from Holland (but we were only in NYC for two days), she really needs help. Guess not practical though... However, in the next couple of years, I'd like to get [REDACTED] to Dubai or Abu Dhabi for a semester abroad (she just started [REDACTED] and we'll need some guidance for her.

I'm still in DC - the job I wanted with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau was eliminated (Financial Education) and the whole bureau is a political hot-potato. If Romney gets elected I have a shot at the Director position as I would make the focus on education, but no hope with the Dems. Am raising money for [REDACTED] so if you (or someone you know) donate, if possible please attach my name too. Would love to be on his consumer finance advisory board, especially focus on women's issues.

Let me know if you get to DC - I'd LOVE to see you!!! Miss you so much!!!!

Love and Happiness, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] cell
[REDACTED]