i connected with Rupert who remembers specifically that 25 for USA did not have 5 seat option for rear he said that is why darren and i went to meatpacking to view i also called california dealer as they are the only stores open now and they are looking into this question as well i will now try to find photos i sent after our visit to meatpacking..

Rupert said configuration online is worldwide and was not geared for USA only..

Hi Rich,

Bentley USA have just released the pricing and ordering guides for EWB. Could you please pass these on to Mr Epstein to look through?

I understand he is a very busy individual but I can't recommend enough visiting the factory in England to commission his new car. If he is in London any time in the next few months, the factory is 1hr 40 minutes from London Euston station or Manchester airport is 20 minutes by car.

Bentley will collect him from the station in a Mulsanne and talk him though all the different colour and interior options. For me though the real benefit of going there is to meet the people physically making the car.

I recently visited and was blown away by the experience.

Just a thought! Any questions please let me know.

Rupert
