Hi Guys!

That sounds great! Tomi I'm also CCing [REDACTED] on this email who is interested in joining [REDACTED]. I'll add you three to the group email, and my office hours are Tuesday mornings from 8 to 11 in lamont cafe. Basically what we are doing now is trying to sell advertisements for programs, tickets, curtains, or the website. You can contact companies from Cambridge, Boston, or home to see if they would be interested in taking advantage of advertising opportunities, and buying an ad with us. You can go in person to meet with these people, call, or email them, although going in person or calling is often most effective. Attached is a media kit that further explains the different advertising options, and a description of [REDACTED] that might be helpful to reference when trying to sell advertisements. I'm also copy and pasting a list of companies not to advertise- these are companies that we have advertised with in the past. Once you look over the list, send me a preliminary list of 15 to 20 companies you might be interested in contacting, so that I make sure you guys don't have any overlaps, and after that list is okayed you're free to get started! Throughout the fall, the main business objective is to get exposure to contacting companies and to learn about advertising. On the social end, we also have business staff bondings (we had our first one this past Saturday) which are pregames when we all just get to hang out and get to know each other better. I am about to send out an email about interviews for business assistant positions- you can also apply to be the business assistant of a particular person on business staff, and do work or projects for that person individually and learn more about his or her position.

Let me know if you have any questions! I'm excited that you guys are interested in the business staff, and will hopefully see you soon!

Parinaz

Hi all!

Parinaz, cc'd on this e-mail are Zoe Oz and Kennedy Edmonds. I met them at initiation last night and they both really want to comp B-staff. Can you add them to the group e-mail and tell them about your office hours so they can get started on ads?

Zoe and Kennedy, Parinaz is our Advertising and Corporate Sponsorship Manager. She is in charge of running the fall comp and will get you set up and caught up with what you need.

Also, tonight is our first Bstaff BA bonding event in Mather Lowrise 428 at 7:00pm so feel free to come and chill with the compere and the staff.

Excited that you guys are joining!

Best,

Tomi
