Brandon has proposed 32k labor and 3k materials = 35k total cost

Original proposal was 40k for labor and materials

Please advise if pricing acceptable and if so when you would like him to begin

Thank you

Subject: Mr. Epstein`s Library,

Dear Richard,

This morning, I brought a lot of samples to Mr.. Epstein. He did not like any of them.

I asked him, whether I can come back and make a sample on the second floor, as he pointed out the color on the floor. I matched the color exactly.

Later on, Mr. Epstein chose the sample and I have it confirmed.

He told me that he may get rid of one section of the Library, the East Section.

The library is a rectangle, and the section he would like to remove is a smaller wall.

I said to Mr.. Epstein, that I will reduce the price for restoration.

I would like to be fair to Mr. Epstein as well to myself.

In all this hurry, hurry life, I forgot to consider materials, which will amount to something like $3,000.--$3,200.-

Still, I would like to reduce the cost to $32,000.- for the full restoration, providing that the East wall is removed and I have nothing to do with it.

I would like to hire help as well to remove all loose parts to work at the studio in Tarrytown, so we can extend the work-day, and we can finish faster: probably in 6-7 weeks. I will try my very best to shorten the time of restoration.

Please, let me know if this is acceptable with Mr. Epstein and the proximate time to start.

Thank you,

Brandon
