Jeffrey.....

As you might have read or seen on the news, in addition to capturing two of Qaddafi's sons (including Seif) rebel fighters have totally taken control of Tripoli and are mopping up the remnants of Qaddafi's forces who have all but deserted and/or abandoned the capital. And as the saying goes, "failure is an orphan and success has a thousand fathers", so of course there are many claiming part of this weekend's success in Tripoli. With this said, our connects in the TNC and in Libya are the same. The TNC is and will continue to hold power after making a few changes. Yes, they haven't appointed a new executive government after firing the last one a month ago, in anticipation of the fall of the regime which they envisioned happening before the end of Ramadan..... So as you see, still on track and on schedule

Fadel Hshad (from Benghazi, whom you met in NYC at the UN event) is still advisor to the President of the TNC and nothing has changed. He also represents the western mountain region where all the attack on Tripoli and surroundings took place from and includes the capital. Mr Hshad is a part of the group who is choosing the interim mayor of the entire Tripoli region, which has the capital and 1/2 of the population of Libya. Additionally through Dr. Fadi Noah (the TNC's US representative whom you also met at the UN event in NYC on June 15, 2011), we still have direct contact with the ministers of oil and finance and others. And our ace in the hole is Dr. Mohamed Yusuf al Magariaf, (the Nelson Mandela of Libya) whom you also met in NYC at the UN event.

The TNC has a lot of feelers out and are awaiting for responses to their many appeals. Needless to say they are skeptical of the people still sitting on the fence. With this said, the opportunity is still there and a show of a few humanitarian gestures could earn us some good will. Yes, the field is more crowded and the cost higher.... But never too late!!

The people of Libya need help.... Help me help them.....

See the attached documents.

Please let's not miss this opportunity to be part of history.

Call me as soon as you can, so that we can structure the best way to move forward.

Sincerely,
Greg Brown

As a result of today's victory more and more people/groups will be willing to work with the TNC because rebel forces now have entered Tripoli, captured two Qaddafi's sons and he is on the run without a command structure... The downside for us is that we are losing our head start and the advantage of being identified as an early supporter which is a major plus. As such let's not lose more time and more of our advantage, especially now that everyone in the world realizes that Qaddafi's days are numbered and the TNC WILL WIN...

They still need humanitarian aid so any ideas that you have are welcomed...

Let's speak tomorrow...
