Thanks for your letter. I'll contact Deborah. I hope that all of this can be worked out expeditiously.

Good evening Noam –

I'm sorry for the delay. I did receive your message, as well as a follow-up call a day or two later from a woman named Lesley Groff, who told me that she is Mr. Kahn's assistant.

As I noted to Ms. Groff (who I hope passed this along to Mr. Kahn) because Deborah Pechet Quinan is now your attorney (and because I am in the midst of preparing a multi-year summary of the trusts' activities at her request) I notified Deborah of your inquiry. She indicated that she'd like to be in touch with you about Mr. Kahn's request before I provided information to him and it was my understanding that Deborah (copied here) had reached out to you, so I was waiting for her reply.

I will stand by to hear from Deborah after you and she have spoken.

Thanks,

Max

I sent this letter to you several weeks ago, and have not heard back. My financial adviser Richard Kahn, at my request, has also written to you and received no response. I contacted you since you are the trustee of the trust that is part of my estate. Can you explain to me why the delay.

We are now working with a financial adviser, Richard Kahn. He would like to contact you to obtain all information related to my estate. Can you please provide him with anything he requires. He should have access to everything. We are sending him your phone numbers, so that he can contact you directly.

Noam
