Reconciled through September, still waiting on a few invoices, but won't move much. Let me know if you have any questions

Will try to get it done by then.

September won't be fully reconciled (will be close) and the October number won't make sense since we'll be incurring a full month's worth of expense and saying Mid-October start

Thank you,
Just push everything out with actual August and September and full blown start mid October
If I can get this morning it would be very very helpful
Thank you,
David
