PHILIP LEVINE ENDORSED BY PRESIDENT CLINTON

Miami Beach, FL - Today, Philip Levine was honored to receive the endorsement of President Bill Clinton.

President Clinton spoke at a luncheon held to rally many of Philip Levine's supporters at the campaign headquarters. "Philip walked door-to-door and knocked on over 4,000 doors because he wanted a direct relationship with the people, he wanted to listen, to learn and to sell himself. I really think that this is an important election, not just for the people of Miami Beach, but for sending a signal of what kind of politics we need in America."

Philip Levine commented, "To say that I am honored to receive President Clinton's endorsement of my candidacy is an understatement. The correct adjectives are difficult to express, but this is a serious matter and I intend to be a Mayor that the residents will be proud of, as well as my friend President Clinton."

"I think this is an important election. I would be for Philip if we weren't friends, because he puts a premium on cooperation across party lines. America is being damaged by conflict, and we need people who will show up for work everyday. Philip will show up to work and get things done," President Clinton said in closing.
