After tremendous interest this past year, we are pleased to continue offering Binding Enrollment. This is an ideal opportunity for those students who are prepared to embark on an unprecedented undergraduate journey, to receive an admissions decision within four weeks of completing our unique, merit-based admissions process. Students can select this option during any admissions cycle — including Early Action.

Tips for Being an Introvert in an Exuberant Community

“Being introverted may mean you dislike constantly drawing attention to yourself, but you can impact your community equally from center stage or from backstage.”

— Nicole Nair, Class of 2020
