See below. What a bummer.

But she is passing this along to her EA pals. Do you want to speak to her anyway? I can push for that...

I signed up for classes at the New School btw.

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email. I just returned from Istanbul yesterday and am headed to Maine for the rest of the month. Using the quiet of August to travel and visit family as much as I can.

I've been thinking a lot about this position, and while it is an excellent opportunity with great benefits, I'm really looking for something that is client facing and in the art world. While I would of course be interested in meeting Jeffrey, I'd also hate to waste anyone's time. I could recommend a few career executive assistants I'm sure would be interested in the position. Please let me know if I could pass your contact information along.

I greatly appreciate the opportunity. Thank you for thinking of me, and I hope to keep in touch.

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

Katharine,

Your CV looks great. Thank you for getting back to me while you're on holiday. I'm a mere go-between so I want to hand this off to the two of you. When are you back on land, with a sturdy wifi connection, so you can Skype with Jeffrey? Let me know. And I'll connect the two of you.

All the v best,
Jessica

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your email, and please forgive my delayed reply. I am in Santorini Greece with a terrible wifi connection, so I'm just hoping this goes through to you.

This sounds like an amazing opportunity with fantastic perks (travel?! yes please!). I've learned, and I'm sure Jeffrey would agree, a great Executive Assistant is really about finding the perfect fit. I would be delighted to meet with him and hear more about the job. For your convenience, I've attached my resume and would be happy to submit a formal application with a cover letter and references. Please let me know if you have any questions, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Warm regards,
