We would like to thank our wonderful partners, speakers, volunteers and the audience for an amazing Ci2016! We look forward to seeing you at Ci2017.

 Hi Jee,

We are delighted to share some of the amazing keynotes from Ci2016 *The Exponential Shift: making transformation happen. All the talks, keynotes, debates and deep conversation will be shared progressively over the next few months. This month features the talks of Associate Professor Rufus Black and Patrycja Slawuta (USA). In case you've missed it we encourage you to watch and share the Ci2016 future predictions video to 2025!

Associate Professor Rufus Black - The innovation we need to avoid the politics we don't want Master of Ormond College; Principal Fellow in the Department of Philosophy at the University of Melbourne and Deputy Chancellor of Victoria University Associate Professor Rufus Black outlines the need to redesign the Australian economic system. We need to rebuild an inclusive society where all are progressing together and our political world has become functional again in solving the problems all citizens face everyday.

Bringing together the best disruptive thinkers to solve entrenched social problems.

The rise of digital technology and changing social norms have impacted almost every sector of our economy, as innovative thinkers create new and disruptive business models. However, by and large this disruptive thinking has yet to impact the social sector.

Join us at the inaugural Australasian Social Business Forum to hear from Nobel Peace Prize Winner, Professor Muhammad Yunus and other leaders and innovators, who will share ideas on how positive social disruption can address the causes of social, economic and environmental inequality and degradation.

If you have an interest in innovative thinking, cross-sector collaboration and creating social change, we encourage you to get involved in this important event.
