What else do you need?

Larry Jackson (head of A&R Interscope, discovered by Clive Davis, he discovered Lana Del Ray, works with Kanye West, Gaga, Beyonce) wants to do something big with me connecting big data to music industry (eg. nat language processing of artist followers to define unique signature, cluster analysis of artists based on followers to inform concert pairings, where to play based on geolocation, etc). We met yesterday. He's a geek at heart. Very cool contract.

We just spoke... she'd very likely come into this deal with you. She holds the highest ranking equity in the company and has a board seat.
She knows Ghislaine FYI.
Lets discuss.
