Sylvio needs to use special glue that he cannot source in USVI

options

- 1) send down via Fed Ex (approximate cost $500)
- 2) send on your plane - if so do you believe you will visit STT by 10/26 or 10/27

i will negotiate his daily rate once we have a firm plan

please advise thank you

Greetings Rich,

Anna, Carlos and I spoke with Mr. Sylvio this morning. What we have and are proposing:

Carlos will be able to pick up the Nautica on Monday, 10/23, so all of the boats that need tubes repaired will be back at LSJ.
Mr. Sylvio can fly in on Thursday, 10/26 work over the weekend and Monday, and fly out on Tuesday, 10/31.
We need JE to bring on the plane the glue and some small tools that Mr. Sylvio will need. Mr. Sylvio will bring the rest of the materials in his luggage.
Mr. Sylvio will pack the glue and tools and deliver to the PB house for the plane. I will coordinate with Renato.

Mr. Sylvio will put together his proposal and email it out today. His rate is about $1,000.00 per day. He will detail everything in the proposal.

Mr. Sylvio is coming alone, Carlos will make sure he has a helper and the larger equipment and tools he will need, as well as the work shelter.

Anna can make provisions for him to stay on LSJ. Crystal Cove is currently uninhabitable.

I can get him a Delta flight from Fort Lauderdale to STT via Atlanta for the dates for $474.16.
