Yes, both Subwoofers are Active, however Odyssey set up tends to lower thier output,. I'd rather try setting up "custom" and trying using AB amps from NY to get more power From the front speakers utilizing the Marantz receiver for preamp to fully power those Wilson / B&W speakers,. The center channel is much more clear for Voice I think?

I'd like to tinker with it more tomorrow, if that's ok with you?

Thx
Larry

I'll Use the PRE OUT from receiver
