If we decant the 97 trust into a new trust before the Judah Trust ends, the Independent Trustees can amend the Judah Trust so that its profits are distributed to the same trust that has received the assets of the 97 Trust.

thanks as always .. also as the judah trust currently pours into the 97 trust ? , would you find it more reasonable to restate or decant after that event or can we make many amendments before aug. I thought tha might open up the old later on?

No - What you're describing is a purchase of the BFP interests for a note secured by the art. That's not a sale of the art.
