Dear Mr. Epstein,

Thank you so much again for supporting our initiative. I am writing to let you know that we are now getting ready to release the Episode 1 of our first season. I wanted to check whether or not you were interested in being featured among our sponsors message in the introduction to the episode, and if so how I should represent that (logo, etc...). In any case this is not obligatory, so let me know what you prefer. You can check a preview of the episode which you should keep private, it is there only for review purposes. We have put an introduction message example for now to thank you for your generous gift.

Thank you so much for supporting our project, we have an exciting season ahead.
