Dear Richard:

The last time we spoke, you asked me to analyze the time we spent on our searches for Mr. Epstein.

I apologize for the delay in response. My father became ill in November and subsequently passed away. I lost four weeks of time, and am just now catching up.

Attached you will find our time analysis for each search. As you can see, we exceeded the deposits by just over $6K.

We have just over $9K of outstanding expenses for the searches as well.

We should be paid for our time and expenses. Please review and let's agree to a number that is fair for both parties.

Thanks,

--Peter
