Happy to hear that you have reverted back. I'll do whatever you want, but the dark grays and ebony were such a 180 degree departure from the direction you have maintained- "soft", "peaceful"...

I will be working your formal proposal this week, but when do think you will have the time to visit and make final selections and review details?

I believe You took the Hermes blanket yesterday- can you fed ex it back so that we can use those colors as our guideline?

I do not know what the linksys wifi is on your aircraft.

Best regards,

Eric

well , at altitude the GREYS looked awful awful. . what a good save. we are back to the hermes light taupe seats. taupe lower sides differnt material same color. dark taupe carpet. . window line soft white and headliner a littel brighter white. . . disappointing that we cant shorten the toilet . so we will just have to treat the door. get rid of VACANT sign. IF it cant be shortened not sure if a swinging door will fit. do you know what the linksys wifi is on board? . the two captains chairs will have different material for their headrests. . the sofa will be grey from blanket but with sheepskin covers. . need to know high and thick we can make arm rests. . sofa so girls can prop a pillow against and work. . front wall fabric. , square off kitchen bulkhead and pocket door if possible. re do galley, mirror and counter top in lav. we need storage for pillow s and blankets ? credenza? not sure. now that larry has found a great solution for stereo , it should be re amped . and maybe sub in sofa .? master shade control on captains seat. . . we might leave the monitors and replace with ipads. . ie they stream music . and maybe receive airshow. over apple app
