Hi Jessica,

As per our conversation, I will check with Jeffrey about paying for the two additional days for Lawrence.

With warm regards,

Cecile

Hi Cecile,

I apologize for the miscommunication. Yes, this is the issue and Lawrence would like the arrangements and expenses to be taken care of by the conference. Please let me know if this can be taken care of.

Jessica

Hi Jessica,

He is correct, it is fine for him to arrive early but the email I sent to everyone said that they were responsible for making any earlier or later arrangements with the Westin or any other hotel in which they wish to stay. I therefore assumed that Lawrence made those arrangements himself and, that I recall, Jeffrey did not convey to me anything different. Several other people are doing the same thing but they took care of their own reservations for the additional time. We have made arrangements to transport everyone on December 9th from the airport or wherever they are staying, if they arrived earlier.

Is the issue that he did not make reservations for the additional days and that he wants to be transported on the earlier date by means other than a taxi cab?

With warm regards,

Cecile

Hello Cecile,

I am trying to confirm travel arrangements for Lawrence for the upcoming conference and was told a hotel reservation was only made for him from Dec. 9-11 and that airport transportation will not be provided because he is arriving early even though he was told by Jeffrey he could arrive early. He is leaving this evening and is not in any position to make these kinds of arrangements and so we are running into the possibility of having to cancel the trip all together. Please let me know if you can provide any assistance as soon as possible so a decision can be made.

Thank you,
Jessica

Good afternoon,

Thank you for some of your replies. The conference will be held on December 9 - 12, 2011 on St. John US Virgin Islands. It will be hosted by Jeffrey Epstein and organized by Dr. Marvin Minsky. The theme of the conference will be "The Future of Computing". Jeffrey will be covering the cost of your travel and your stay on St. John.

Please let me know if you are able to attend.

With warm regards,

Cecile
