I am not content to simply sit silent while Scarola writes threatening letters but I do not want to do anything in conflict with strategy to bring Kirkland in etc. but think that the Judge should know at the appropriate time that Scarola is threatening your counsel to try to deny you representation when its Scarola's intransigence/irrationality on the counter-claim that keeps the case alive. If Scarola was to have your way, you would have no lawyers to defend you on the counter-claim.

Team,

Attached are the file-stamped copies of the Notice of Time Requested for Oral Argument and letter to the Clerk of the Court regarding scheduling issues, both of which were filed in court and served on the DA today in connection with the appeal of the SORA adjudication. I will let you know when we are notified of an oral argument date.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

Regards,
Sandy
