I have just heard from Moscow State University people and they will be happy to give you a tour of the university and have you meet a few people. Assuming you are still interested, your host will be a young neuropsychologist/neuroscientist Zara Melikyan. I know her only through email exchanges but she sounds intelligent and speaks good English. MSU has two campuses: the original old one downtown facing the Kremlin and within a walking distance from your hotel, and the modern main one in a different part of town. If you have enough time, she will show you both. What is the best way of contacting you in Moscow?
