They did not mention that. They were thinking that it facilitated gifts of fractional interests in the painting—which I assume Leon and Ronald will not be doing and that it created valuation discounts—which we would already from joint ownership. So, it did not seem so attractive. I will inquire about the sales tax benefit.

Funny you should say that—Herrick suggested the same thing but I understood that we were keeping it simple. I will touch base with them to get that started.
